

Investigating Fuel Sustainability Pretest

Name:

Every year in the United States, 200 billion gallons of fuel are used for transportation. This includes moving people and freight by car, truck, plane and boat.

Is this use of fuels sustainable?

- Define sustainable.
- Explain why you think the United States' use of fuels is or is not sustainable.
- What information would help you better answer this question?